The Student Council has been the voice of the students in the administration of the high school. The members enhusiastically engage in projects to improve the school, among which have been Bank Days and Tag Days. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Grossman, the Student Council of 1966 was a great success.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The officers of the Council guide the destinies of school government. This year's officers, Dave Minicucci, Eileen Lynch, Jerry Minihan, Bill DeBarba, Edie Foulds, and Jack Stephenson seem to be having a round-table discussion on choosing this year's representative at the Annual Student Council Convention.

The enthusiasm exhibited by those associated with the Knight is a fine indication of the excellent participation in extracurricular activities which characterizes the Class of 1966. The willingness and cooperation extended has made this annual one of the finest in the area.

Studying their various sections of the yearbook are this year's editors, Pam Winters, Photography editor; Bonnie Dulude, Lay-out Editor; Debbie Furnari, Activities editor; and Edie Foulds, Advertising editor.

The smiling faces of this year's staff the satisfaction which comes with the completion of a year's work. Under the able guidance of Miss Mildred Matasso, the crew of Karin, Joyce, June, Jeanne, Jack, Kathy and Nancy met with no adversities in tackling the problems of activities, sports, captions and senior pictures.

Since its initiation in 1964, the Squire has become a true voice of the student body. Seeking to satisfy a variety of interests with articles dealing with school and club news, coming events, sports, sudent and eacher interviews, student works, and special features, the Squire has achieved its goal of functioning as an effective high school newspaper.

THE SQUIRE

The editorial board, under the supervision of Mrs. Enid Burns, gives the final O.K. before the paper goes to press.

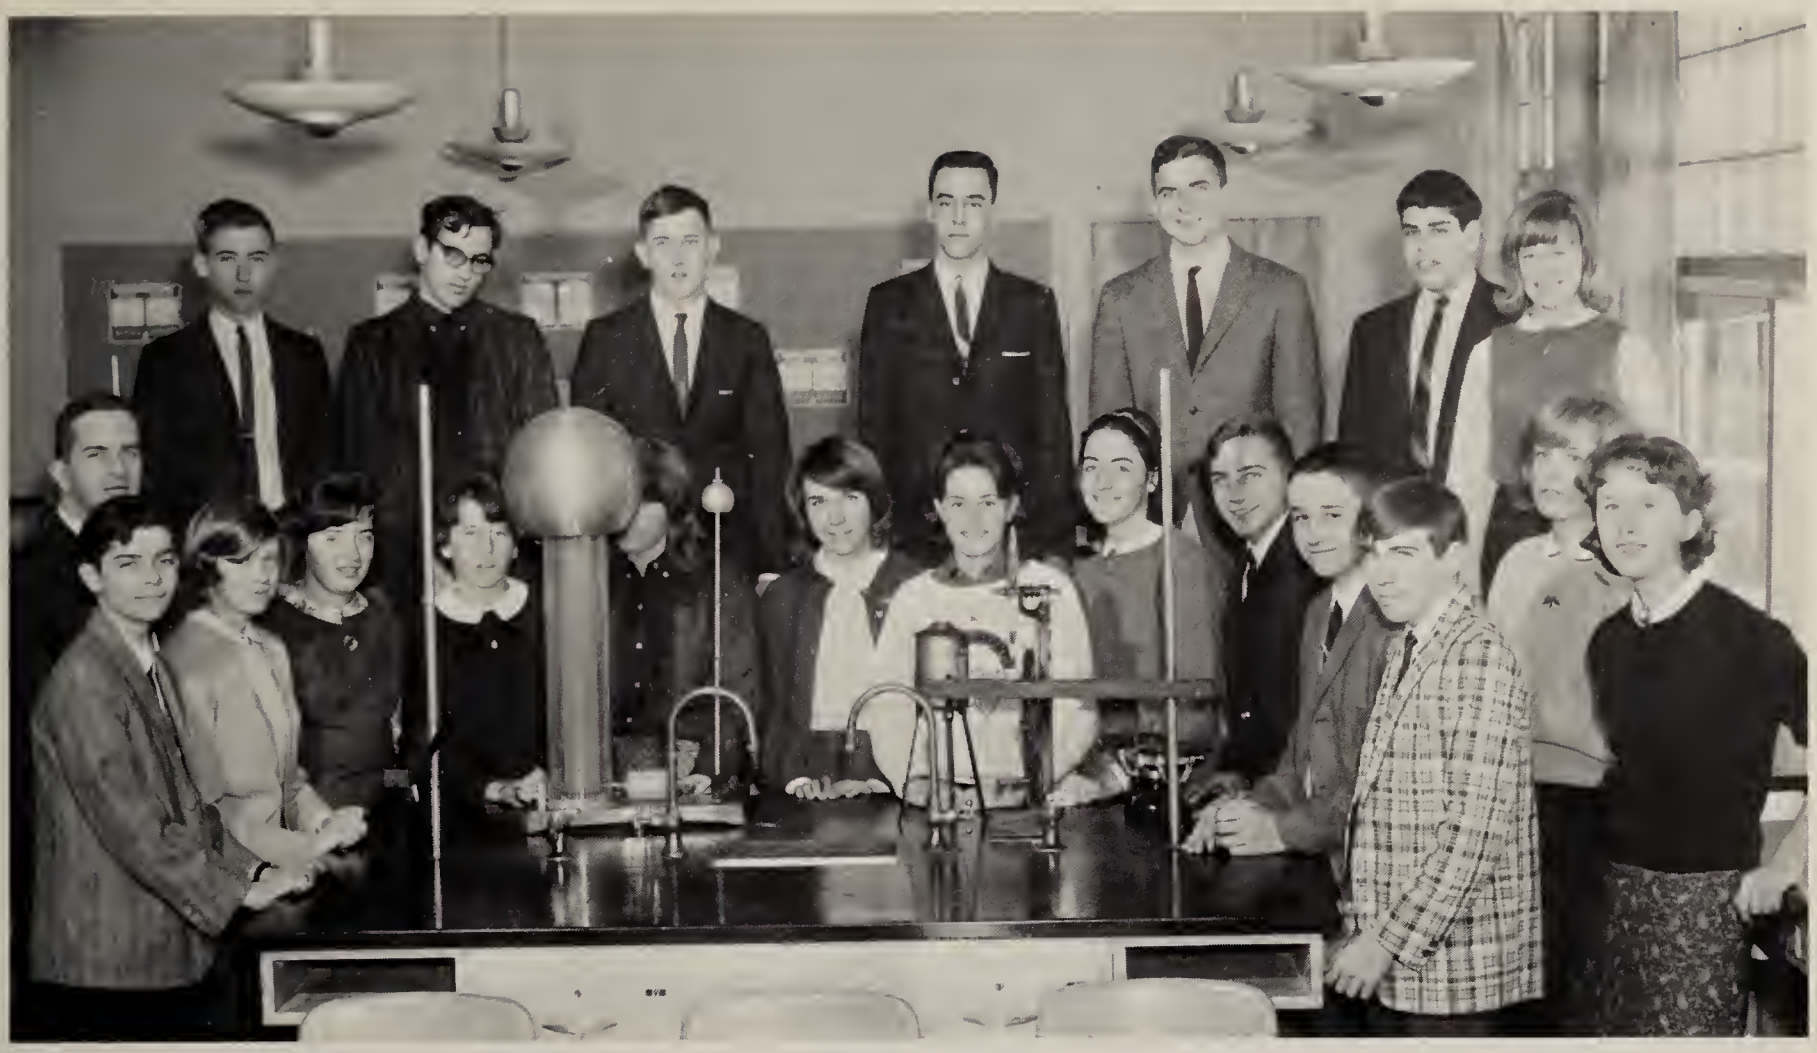

The Math Club, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Forgetta and Mr. Joseph Lynch is concerned with the encouragement and development of an interest in, and understanding of, mathematics. It is a channel through which those interested are acquainted with the modern principles and applications of their subject.

MATH CLUB

Officers of the Club, Leonard Johnson, Sec. Treas., Joyce Witzgall, V.Pres., and Bill DeBarba, Pres., discuss a problem with senior members, Barbara McCann and Pam Winters. Members gain actual knowledge from their peers by means of student discussions.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Regan, affords students interested in science an opportunity to secure the intellectual stimulation that arises from professional associations. It also provides the experience necessary in preparing and exhibiting technical material before fellow students at Science Fairs.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The purpose of the Photography Club is to afford its members the opportunity of gaining skills and learning techniques in the art of shutter-bugging. Under the supervision of Mr. John Robinson, Allan Breen, Mike Robinson, Jim Barwell, Jim McIntyre, Robert Guy and Tom Hayes inspect their equipment before going on their next assignments.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The purpose of the North Andover High School Dramatic Club is to promote the intellectual as well as the social

"I've already done my Christmas shopping," says Kathy misrepresentingly.

As part of a recent production, Michele Brian charms four little cherubs with her recital of "The Littlest Angel."

development of the individual by training him in the many and varied phases of modern play production.

"What do you mean, I'm already 'lit' for Christmas?"

As the old adage insists, "practice makes perfect." North Andover's would-be Thespians rehearse a scene from their most recent production. Rehearsals make up an integral part of the behind the scenes work and provide the catalyst for the fine work exhibited by this group. Under the direction of Mr. James McDonald, the fine performances of this group are typical.

The Russian Club, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Hall, is one of North Andover High School's most recently formed organizations. The purpose of this club is to afford its members the opportunity to become acquainted with the Russian life, language, and traditions. By viewing film strips and listening to lectures this goal is accomplished.

Russian Club comrades, Mary Lou Philbin, Joyce Copeland, Betty Detora, Kathy Fiori, Lyn Foley and Steve Giola, discuss a problem about the Russian terrain.

RUSSIAN CLUB

CHORUS

One of North Andover High School's most recently organized groups, the Chorus, is primarily a society formed for the enjoyment of those who are vocally talented to some degree. The quality of the choral work is due primarily to the dedication of the group's director, Mr. Clarence Mosher.

KNIGHTINGALES

Ten young ladies compose North Andover's singing good-will emissaries, the Knightingales. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Mosher, this fine group has made a great contribution toward the honor and reputation of its school.

The Cheerleaders take time out from a recent game to pose for our cameraman. Their amazing spirit is a credit to them and to North Andover High. Even when the game is not going our way, we can always count on the Cheerleaders to bolster our spirits.

High in the midst of one of their routines, these young ladies present an eye-catching, zesty spectacle to the fans. By their rabid enthusiasm, they instill enthusiasm by both audio and visual means.

Victory! Victory! is our cry!
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y

CHEERLEADERS

The Majorettes completed another successful year of stimulating school spirit at the football games. This group is under he direction of Mr. Milton Kimmel.

MAJORETTES

Come on girls . . . LEFT! right. LEFT!

Walk softly but carry a big stick!

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club energizes the North Andover High School student body by supplying it with added quantities of school spirit. Chiefly through the actions of this can N.A.H.S. has a united student body cheering it on at all regular and tournament games.

LIBRARY CLUB

Under the guidance of Mr. Lewis Hull, the Library Club offers its members the opportunity to develop a congenial relationship with books. As literature reflects a people, the better understanding of books fosters a better relationship among people. Through hard, consistent work, this has become a well organized club.

The North Andover High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Milton Kimmel, has marched through another year of success. School activities, especially football games, receive an added zest by the half-time performances of this talented group.

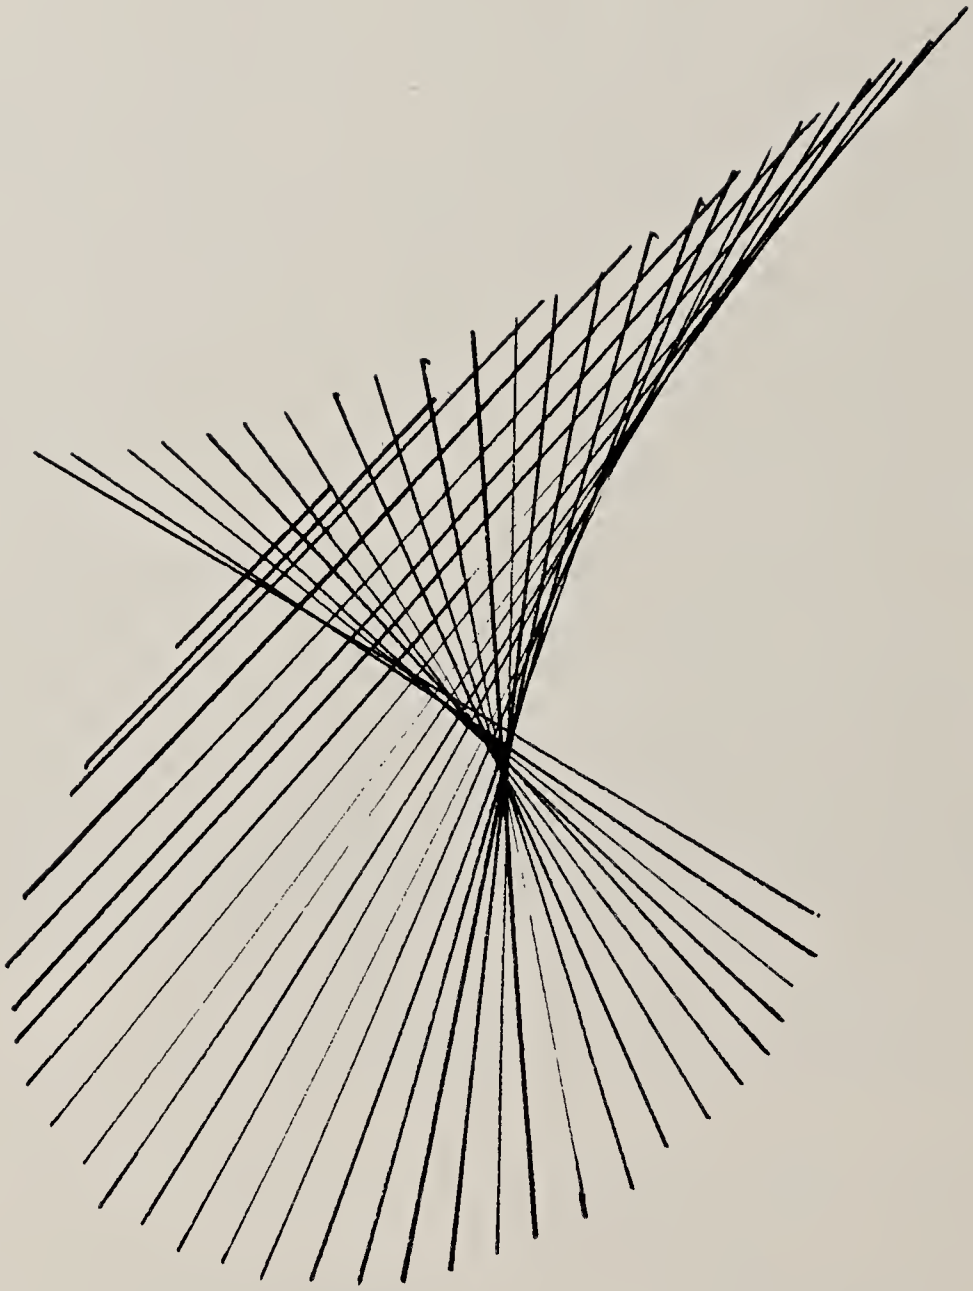

"And-a one, and-a two . . ."

Seventy-six trombones lead the big parade . . .

The North Andover Scarlet Knights have completed a successful season. Under the coaching guidance of such capable men as Robert Sullivan, Coach, and his assistants, John Fichera and Robert Roche, the boys displayed impressive athletic ability as well as good sportsmanship.

FOOTBALL

Will this kick be successful from the end zone? Only Earl Smith knows for sure!

This is a tribute to dedication, to the unselfish, to the faithful, to the hopeful, to the anxious. This is a tribute to the hoarse throat, the ringing head and the occasional black eye. As much a part of sport as the heralded hero, the unsung spectator rises and falls with his team but is powerless to control its destiny. Without him sport is empty.

The key to the defense and offense — the linemen four.

On your mark — get set — go!

Stopped dead in his own tracks!

Will this kick get off in time?

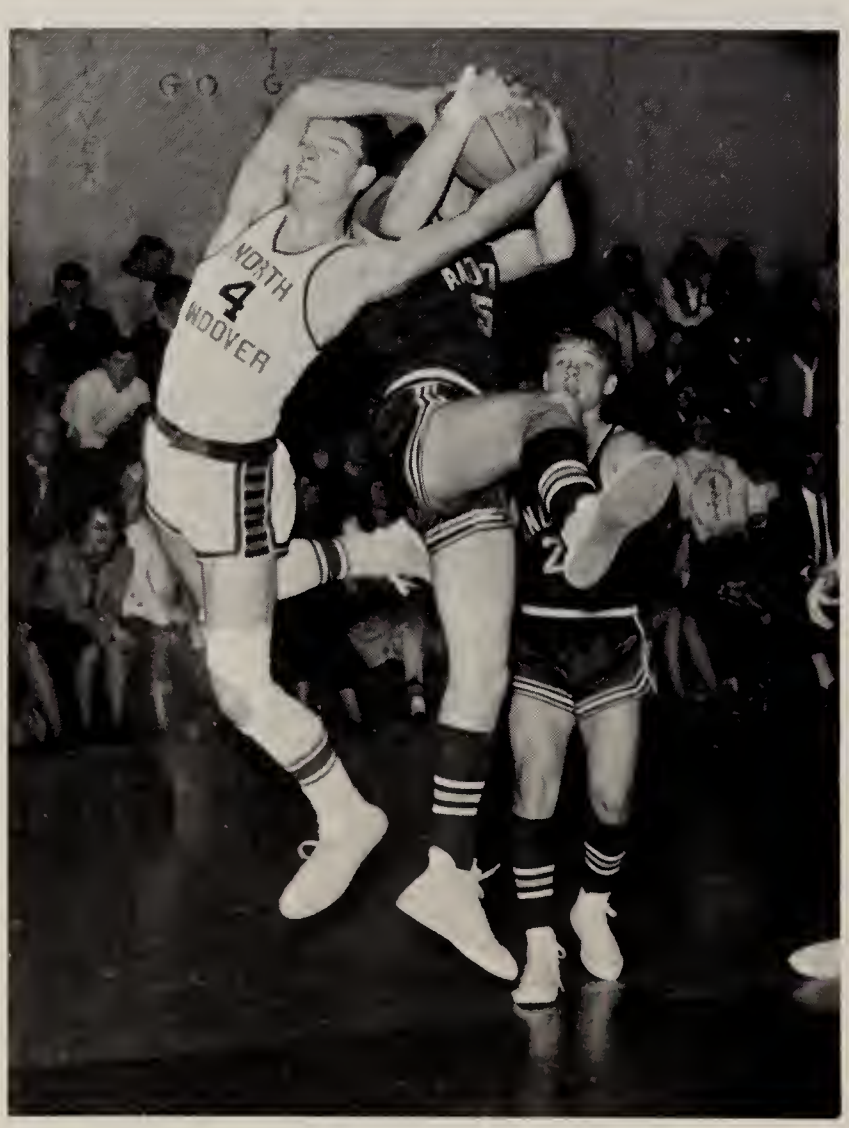

Hallelujah! Victory!

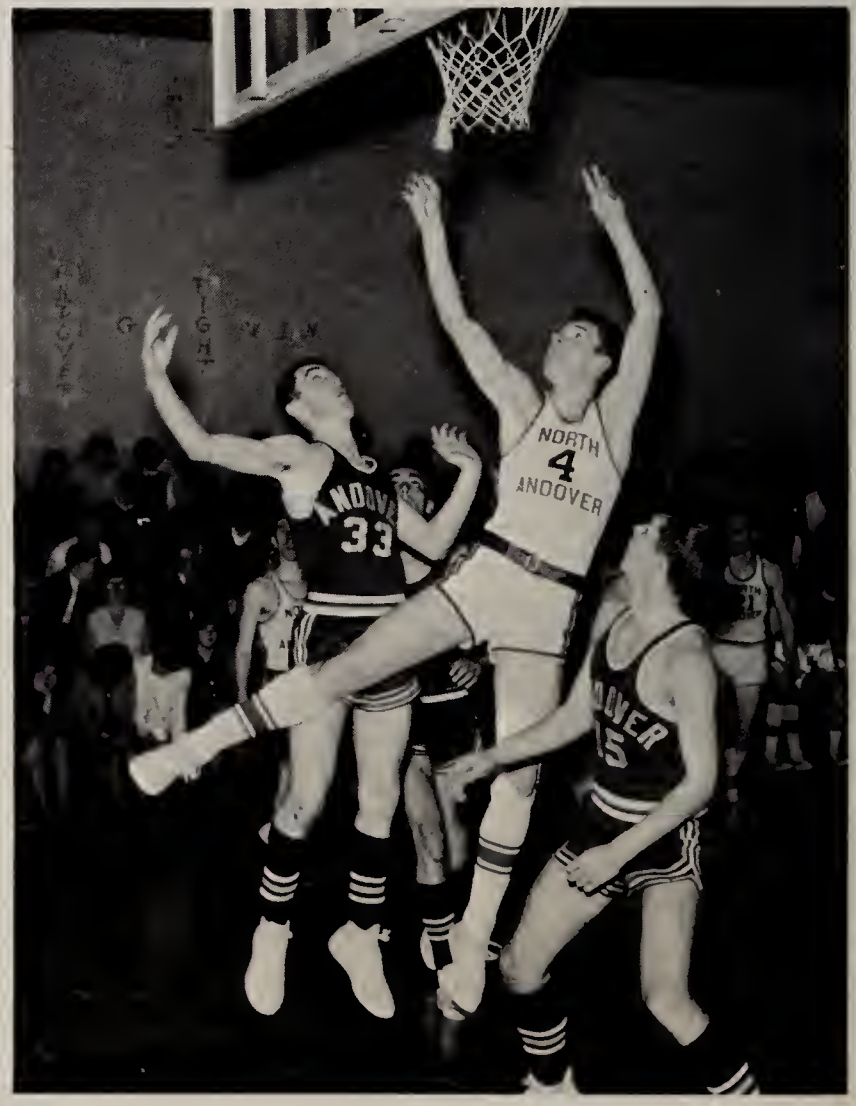

The North Andover Basketball team had a victorious season resulting in qualifying for the Tech Tournament.

BASKETBALL

Is this basketball or wrestling?

Get that rebound!

Whoops! I mustn't lose it!

"Uh . . . excuse me, fellas, but don't you think we should all get a chance? After all, just because you're the tallest ones here . . . fellas?"

Who will get this rebound?

It's defense that counts now!

It's a bird — it's a plane — it's Barry Humphries!

Under the fine coaching of Howard Crozier, North Andover's Cross Country team has completed another successful season. The two and a half mile grinding course through woods and over hills challenges the boys to develop good muscular coordination.

The jumping jacks in a warm-up session.

CROSS COUNTRY

The North Andover Wrestling team has completed another successful season under the supervision of Coach Howard Crozier. The season was highlighted by many things. Co-Captains Steve Henry and Tom Licciardello placed first and second in the State, respectively, and third and first in New England.

WRESTLING

Now all I have to do is flip him over.

I must hold him for one minute more.

Under the guidance of Miss Nancy Yanofsky, the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team ended the 1966 season with a record of 6 wins, 4 losses. Co-captains Nancy Zimny and Pat Stone led the team to victory, in many cases, against tough leagues.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Only a few more bounces and I'll be there!

It's a "stuff"!

Shoot!

Don't let it get past the key!

With Miss Yanofsky's help, the team plans some strategic plays.

Almost near the basket.

I'm free!

Shall we dance?

Keep those sticks near the ground!

Now to get it out of the striking zone.

The team relaxes after a successful game on the field.

Little Red Riding Hood — this is your life!

This is field hockey not golf, Susan!

The Girls' Field Hockey team has ended a successful 1965-66 season. Coach Nancy Yanofsky aided greatly through rigorous afternoon practice sessions involving standard drills and mock games.
